ADA COMPLIANCE

Visit our website (www.tccsingers.org) to learn more about TCCS' compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

MISSION

Treasure Coast Community Singers, Inc. is devoted to keeping people singing, creating purposeful music for the enrichment of the Treasure Coast.

ORGANIZATIONAL STRUCTURE

TCCS is a non-profit 501(c)3 organization. Founded in 2003 by Dr. Douglas P. Jewett along with a handful of singers, TCCS has grown to over 175 singing members. TCCS is uniquely structured with a Board of Directors who oversee the organization's management and who depend on Team Leaders to oversee various different teams, ranging from Hospitality and Wardrobe to Website and Grants, in order to conduct the operations of the organization. This makes TCCS an organization that operates almost entirely on volunteers!

OUR SUPPORTERS

Funded by ticket sales, membership registration fees, private donations, and grants, TCCS relies on support from its membership and the community in order to continue bringing music to the Treasure Coast.

TCCS is grateful to have been the recipient of a grant award from Martin Arts' Women Supporting The Arts organization.

TCCS and our membership would like to say THANK YOU to Women Supporting the Arts, our community sponsors, and our private donors.

STUDENT OUTREACH

TCCS prides itself on mentoring musically talented youth through our Scholarship and Stipend Programs.

The Scholarship Program supports graduating high school students as they transition to college. Over the past 20+ years, TCCS has awarded over $50,000 to students from the Treasure Coast.

The High School Stipend Program offers talented high school juniors and seniors the opportunity to rehearse and perform in concerts with TCCS and in return they receive a stipend. Interested students should reach out to TCCS to inquire about the program.

For more information, please contact TCCS at tccssecretary@gmail.com.
